

INTERNATIONAL LAW: ACCOMMODATIONS

Last updated: March 9, 2022

Here is the schedule for those of you who are unable to attend class in-person due to Covid-19. Please note that this schedule may change. So, check this document frequently. Also note that you have to submit your work during class time to AU's Moodle platform (under class activities). No extensions allowed.

Schedule

- Feb. 9: Globalization/Private International Law
Analyze the scenarios on Private International Law and answer the questions on Globalization.
- Feb. 16: Jus ad bellum and jus in bello
Do the activities on jus ad bellum and jus in bello, including universal jurisdiction.
- March 2: Midterm test (take-home).
Work on the midterm. No online class.
- March 9: Extradition (online)
Connect to Zoom at 7.00 pm for an online class.
Submission of midterm.
- March 16: The Russia-Ukraine war
Discussion questions
- March 23: International Criminal Court
Analyze the scenarios and answer the discussion questions on the International Criminal Court.
- March 30: Review/Distribution of final take-home (online)
Connect to Zoom at 7.00 pm for an online class and to receive the questions for the final take-home.
- April 6: Submission of final take-home (online)
Submit the final take-home according to the instructions.

Classes highlighted in yellow also apply for those students who normally attend in-person classes.

